

Information for Executive Staff

Your contract with Fresenius will continue during your leave of absence. During this time you will receive your leave of absence salary. What else you do you need to know about leave of absence:

Is there a time limit on leave of absence?

Leave of absence for a break can last up to a maximum of 3 months. In cases of leave of absence for care, it is 6 months. Leave of absence for early retirement is possible for up to a maximum of 36 months.

Can you take several leaves of absence consecutively?

You can use your time credit for multiple leaves of absence. For this the minimum time interval between the two leaves of absence must be observed. There must be at least 36 months between two breaks. If it is a break for further professional development, the interval between a further leave of absence is 12 months.

The following benefits are not affected by leave of absence:

- Long-service award
- Company pension scheme
- Kindergarten allowance

The following benefits are proportionately reduced by months of leave of absence:

- Christmas bonus
- Holiday entitlement

These benefits cease to apply during leave of absence:

- Special payments for the sales force (e.g. DSL subsidy)

What effect does leave of absence have on the target variable?

If the leave of absence lasts only a few months, you should agree on how to handle the target variable directly with your manager. If the leave of absence lasts for a full calendar year, no target variable will be paid for that year. During this time period you will only receive the agreed leave of absence salary.
